

Allowing passengers to use their cell phone during flight is unsafe due to the threat of terrorist communication. Also, aircraft are so compact, having all those conversations in such a confined space would make the cabin intolerable. Cell phone use must not be allowed.